

Concert

Music lovers are promised a rare treat Thursday evening, May 7, at the opera house, through the announcement by Mrs. Jessie Brock Morris, a concert by Mrs. Jessie Brock Morris and Miss Leta Nickerson, under the auspices of and with the assistance of the Klamath Falls Military Band. Both ladies are well known as musicians of exceptional ability, and they will be ably supported by the concert work of the band. The recent organization of a club, the large and complete library of music, and several years hard work under adverse circumstances entitle the organization to the full support of the city and its people.

An Interesting Item

The Klamath Falls Military Band needs a piano. Just a piano won't do, it must be a good one. To stand the rough usage of dance work and as a club-room instrument, and still be musical enough to meet the severe requirements of solo and vocal accompaniment work, it must be strictly high grade in every particular. Now we can't afford to pay the retail price of such an instrument, and after corresponding with several leading piano houses on the coast, ten per cent discount was the best I could get. Now I have been in the music business several years, both as a dealer and piano tuner, and I know something about the prices and values of pianos. I know that we can afford the highest grade instrument made if we can only get the benefit of wholesale prices. After considerable correspondence with manufacturers I finally have been fortunate enough to secure the agency for Klamath county for the Baldwin piano, and there isn't a better piano made than the Baldwin. It is necessary, however, for me to buy four pianos in order to get the benefit of the wholesale price.

Now here's the point: I'm not going into the piano business, I've something else to do; but if there are four people in Klamath County who want a first grade piano at the price usually asked for a cheap stencil instrument, here is an opportunity you'll never see again in a lifetime. People don't usually sell pianos for fun, and ordinarily you'll pay the agent a profit of two hundred to five hundred dollars. I ask no profit whatever and I shall sell only the four pianos necessary to secure the wholesale price. This is strictly a cash proposition manufacturers don't sell at wholesale on installments. Now if you know of anyone in Klamath County who is in a position to appreciate such an opportunity, you will confer a favor on the band by referring them to me.

IVAN DANIELS.

Historical Novels.

To produce a so called historical novel has been attempted by many, but with indifferent success by the majority, so far as history is concerned. Unlike the best known and the most successful authors of this class are Scott, Kingsley and Lytton. In grouping books of this type in an order of merit based on their historical worth, it cannot be denied that "The Last of the Barons" should be awarded the first place, with "Henry Esmond" and "Hereward the Wake" bracketed as second. Victor Hugo's "L'Histoire d'un Crime," which has been called "the apotheosis of the special correspondent," is a notable example of a contemporary history written under a thin disguise of fiction.—Pearson's.

The flesh of young giraffe, especially that of a young cow, is extremely good, somewhat like veal, with a gamelike flavor. The tongue, from eighteen to twenty inches long, is also very good. But the marrowbones afford the greatest luxury to the South African hunter.
